For allocating the public Masses we give precedence to anniversaries of death, and then to those on other dates or week-days specified. The intentions will be allocated on a fortnightly basis, and the earlier an intention reaches us, the more probable it is that we can accommodate your wishes. With this system we should be able to do so more efficiently, so that you do not feel obliged to have Masses said elsewhere. We apologize for any disappointment which you may have had in the past in this regard.
