ways on the tongue. If no server, please hold the Communion

Priory Court: Last week we informally inaugurated Priory Court. Parishioners appreciated the size and good condition of the building. From now on the coffee after Mass will take place over there. The temporary ramp to the new car park will be improved soon. You may already park in the new car park on the 18 spaces RIGHT from the new access to our back garden, i.e. the rear street entrance. In due course, the floor paint for parking spaces will be upgraded.

Save Babies: Manchester City Council are consulting on a Public Space Protection Order (PSPO) in the area surrounding the abortion facility in Fallowfield, Manchester. This would ban peaceful prayer vigils and the offering of help in the vicinity of the facility. We have seen over 100 women change their minds and choose life for their unborn children as a result of these vigils in Manchester. If you have been to a vigil please respond to the consultation online at <http://www.manchester.gov.uk/consultations> or if you haven't you can email: asb.action.team@manchester.gov.uk to express your opposition to the PSPO.

More Christmas cards to buy: Sunday 17th November after both Holy Masses – sold by SPUC. Terry Gorman of ACN thanks you all for having purchased last Sunday £495 worth of Christmas cards – almost 70% more than last year (£293.10) and by far and away a new record!
