Deo gratias for the beautiful recent Christmas festivities! Thank you so much to all of you who, this past Christmas and over the year, contributed to the life of St Mary's Shrine in general through: the liturgy and music, the flowers and cleaning, the collection and LiveMass, the administration, site managing, the various devotion groups, the cooking of meals, tidying the garden and car park; washing, sowing and mending vestments, linens and clergy items, and generally though your prayer and Christian charity.

Last but not least, I thank my fellow clerics Frs Ian Verrier, Henry Whisenant and Andrew Jolly, and Deacon Roger Gilbride for their generous pastoral zeal along the past year, not to forget our dear absent clergy Frs Konrad Loewenstein and Alex Stewart. On their behalf and mine, I thank you for your many expressions of affection and consideration through Christmas cards and Christmas gifts. Please be assured that you were remembered and your intentions in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass at Midnight Mass, including all of you praying with us from a distance via LiveMass.

The Men's group weekly meeting resumes this Wednesday (8th Jan) following the usual format.

Extra liturgical Christmas celebrations: the Saturday before Christmas, a group of our parishioners walked into the town centre to sing Christmas carols and handed out blessed Miraculous Medals to the passersby. On Monday 30th December, there was standing room only at the performance of 'The Finding of the King', a nativity play in the top parish room. Congratulations to the families and Fr Whisenant for the hard work and the impressive success.

Please be as generous as you can to help SPUC defend unborn babies and their mothers from this new attack.
