NOTICES

MANY THANKS from all the clergy for all the cards, gifts and donations received at Christmas! A big thank-you too to everyone who worked so hard to make our Christmas celebrations here at St Mary's so beautiful (cleaning/decorating the church; serving; singing; etc.)!

The Te Deum is sung after 11am Mass on New Year's Eve, in thanksgiving for all blessings received in 2023. A plenary indulgence is gained under the usual conditions. Also, Exposition & Benediction to see the old year out, from 11pm to midnight, with singing of Te Deum.

Veni, Creator Spiritus sung before Mass on New Year's Day, to implore divine assistance for 2024, also with plenary indulgence attached.

2024 wall calendars (FSSP UK & Ireland edition) are available from the narthex for a suggested minimum donation of £2 (money to be placed in the metal safe).

Epiphany water blessing after 12.10pm Mass on Friday 5 January: if bringing your own water, try to minimize the number of bottles — and no small bottles, please! Alternatively, empty bottles can be filled afterwards from the holy-water container at the side of the church; blessed chalk also available for 'chalking the doors'.

Penitents are requested to switch OFF mobile phones (not just silenced or in 'flight mode') before entering the confessional, on advice from the archdiocese.

Ladies' Group on Saturday 13 January, 1pm-3pm. Bring-your-own picnic lunch, followed by spiritual talk.

First Holy Communion / Confirmation candidates for 2024: if you have a child who is approaching the age to receive these sacraments, please contact Fr Evans.
